Memories of Turkey 1959-60

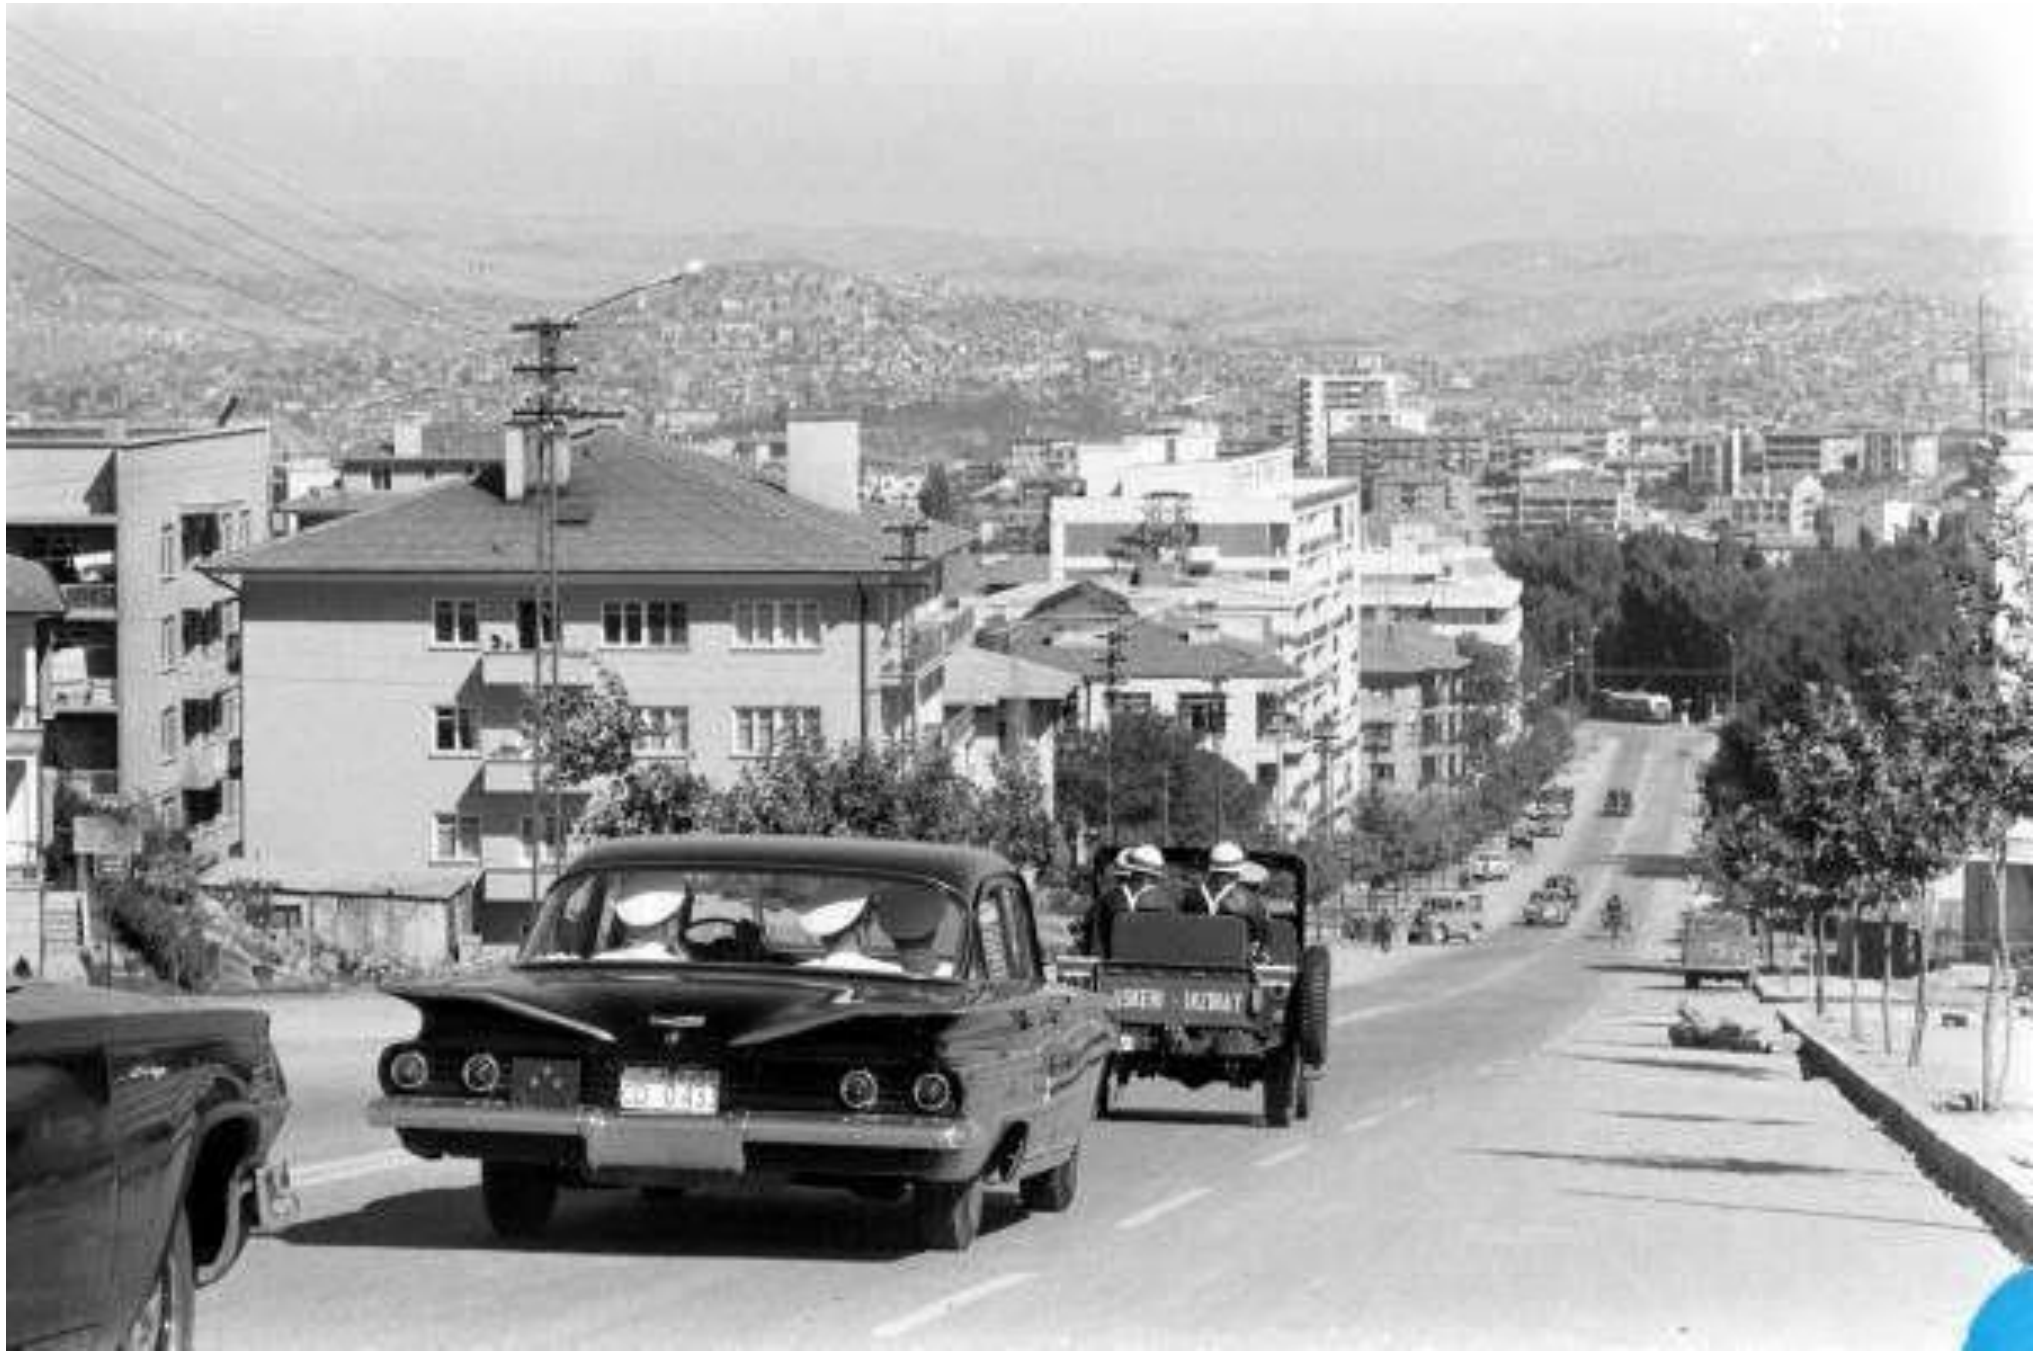

David Lane

British Embassy Ankara

Basic map of Ankara and surroundings from 1960

Cinnah Caddesi
Ankara 1960.

Ankara castle district

NESTLE
Bankalar Caddesi
Ankara-

British Embassy in Ankara and gardens 1960s

Dame Ninette de Valois

Traditional wedding procession

Menderes with U.S. ambassador to Turkey Fletcher Warren

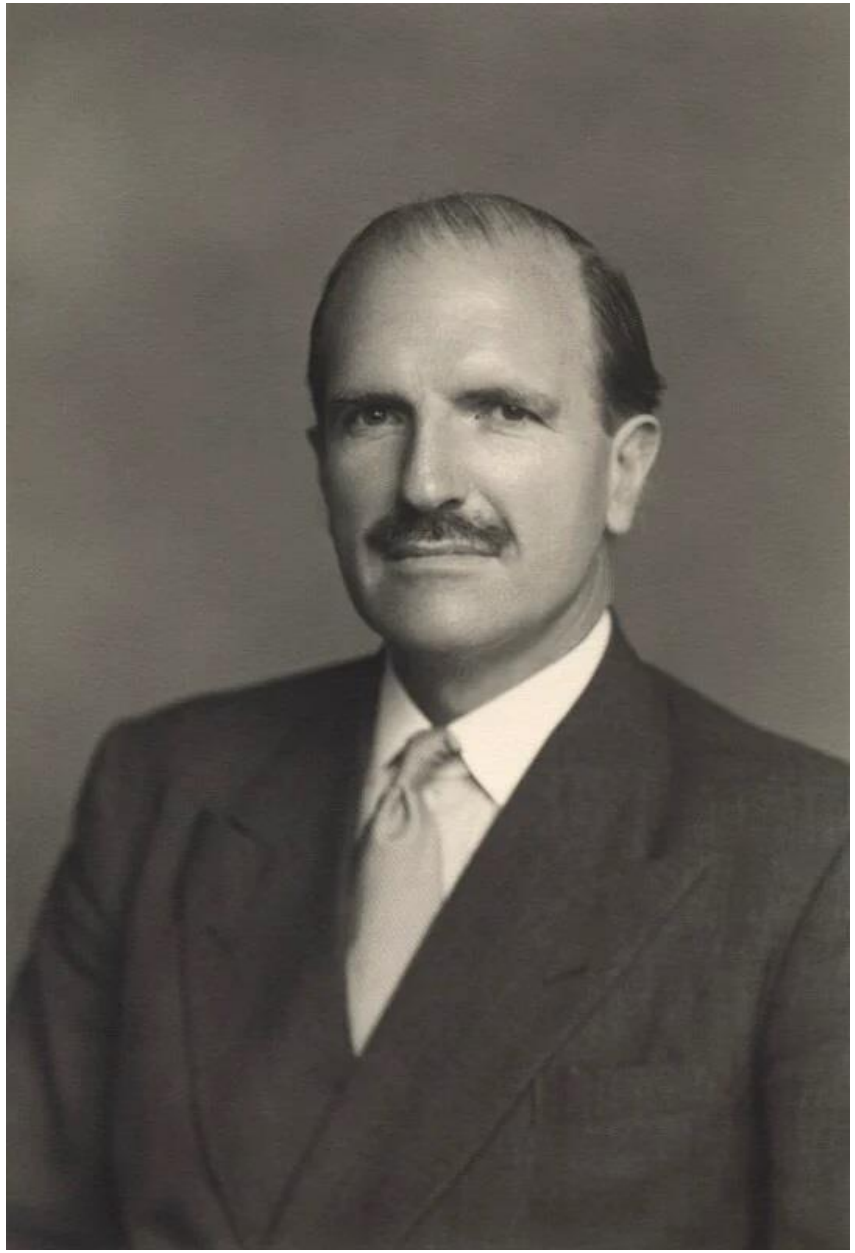

GO

Ankara railway station and admin buildings

Ambassador Sir Bernard Alexander Brocas Burrows, Ankara, Turkey (1958–1962)

Ankara Ulus square, c. 1960

Tanks outside the NATO building in Istanbul, 2-4 May 1960, during NATO foreign ministers' conference heavily guarded by soldiers and tanks because of ongoing student riots against the Menders regime.

A military tank is stationed at the center of Kizilay, Ankara’s main square, a few hours after a coup d’etat.

Citizens at a newsstand read of the arrest of Prime Minister Menderes after the coup in 1960.

A university protest taken in Ankara in 1960. ‘We will build with science what ignorance has destroyed’.

A Turkish soldier kisses the hand of Ismet Inonu, the 75-year-old former Turkish president and leader of the Republican People's Party (CHP), as the soldiers maintain guard duty outside his home in Ankara, Turkey, May 31, 1960. In the background are university students and other supporters of the political leader in the wake of the bloodless coup by Turkish military that deposed the government.

Supporters of the coup displaying their loyalty

Supporters of the coup displaying their loyalty in Ulus square, Ankara

1960 Turkish coup d’état commemoration coin – ‘Sovereignty belongs to the nation’

June 1960 citizens saluting coup officers in the street

Yassıada Trials October 1960 – September 1961

Deposed prime minister Adnan Menderes landing on Imrali island under armed guard.

Yassiada
court room

Ankara Kizilay square c. 1960