Anglo-Turkish Society online lecture, 31 May 2022, 6.00 pm (UK time)
Speaker: Evren Balta
Platform: Zoom with link provided to those who register
Title: 'Turkey and Russia in a Changing World'

The relations between Turkey and Russia are deeply rooted but highly fluctuating and sensible to global and regional developments. The bilateral relations have rapidly advanced since 2016 and the two countries have significantly advanced their military, economic and diplomatic ties. This talk will discuss current policies of Turkey towards Russia in the broader context of Turkish and Russian relations with NATO, Europe, and the U.S.

Booking essential: https://evren-balta-lecture.eventbrite.co.uk
Contact: contact@angloturkishsociety.org.uk

Evren Balta is a Professor of International Relations a at Özyeğin University. She is the co-author of The American Passport in Turkey: National Citizenship in the Age of Transnationalism (with O Altan-Olcay, Upenn Press, 2020). It was the winner of the American Sociological Association Global and Transnational Sociology Section's Best Book by an International Scholar Award. Her research areas include transnational identities, populism, and domestic sources of international relations. She has published extensively on Turkish foreign policy and Russian-Turkish relations.

The Anglo-Turkish Society relies solely on membership dues and donations to continue its work. If you wish to become a member, sponsor one of our charities or wish to leave a legacy small or large, we would be happy to hear from you.
https://www.angloturkishsociety.org.uk/