Book launch by Özlem Warren: 'Sebze: Vegetarian recipes from my Turkish kitchen'

Date: 26 November 2024, 6pm

Venue: Royal Anthropological Institute, 50 Fitzroy St, Fitzrovia, London

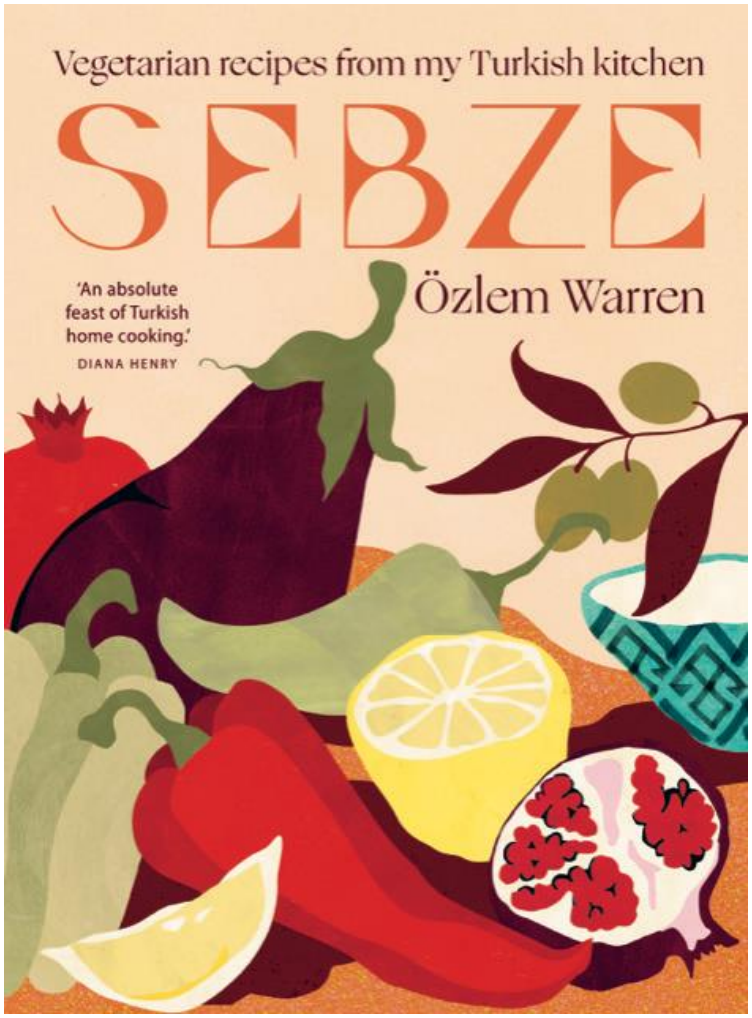

'Sebze' translates as vegetables in Turkish and so this cookbook is a collection of 85 vegetarian recipes celebrating Turkey and its food.

Inspired by thousands of years of rich and diverse culinary heritage, Sebze is a recipe collection built with convenience and flavour in mind, championing popular Turkish classics, along with lesser-known regional specialties, such as Gözleme (Stuffed Flatbreads), Çılbır (Turkish Style Poached Eggs with Garlicky Yoghurt), Beetroot with Walnuts and Pomegranate Molasses Easy, Herby Pan Börek, Otlu tava böreği, Nohut Dürümü (Gaziantep's Spiced Chickpea Wrap) and more. You will be glad to know there are scrumptious sweet treats in Sebze too, from the Turkish classic milk-based Fırın Sütlaç to the luscious Pumpkin and Walnut Baklava – Özlem Warren's take on the much-loved classic.

A passionate and skilled advocate for her national cuisine, Özlem will show you how to make meals that you want to – and can – cook, making Sebze the perfect introduction to Turkish food for the home cook. The presentation will be followed by an optional meal with limited spaces at a local restaurant with foods of the genre detailed in the book. The book will be offered for sale during the event, cash only payment please - £25.
